NEWSLETTER FOR MARCH, 2006

The 1061th meeting of the Akron Crime Clinic will be held on Thursday, March 9th, 2006 at the Town Crier Restaurant (Rte. 261) in Norton, Ohio. Social hour is at 5:45 p.m. with dinner following at 6:45 p.m. Reservations will be very important. Please contact Bill Aylward at 330-864-3559 or Danny Zampelli at 330-929-2999 or by e-mail at (dzampelli@ci.akron.oh.us) before noon on Wednesday, March 8th 2006.

You may have read it in the paper or have dealt with it in your job, a victim who has been continually abused by a significant other but doesn't leave the relationship, and asked yourself, "why the hell doesn't she just leave?" Rita Christie Nelson of the Community Outreach Program brings an interesting and personal perspective to this question. She has taught at various law enforcement agencies and domestic violence seminars and will surprise you with her perspective on the issue!

CRIME CLINIC GOES HIGH TECH

Over the last few months many of you have received this newsletter both through e-mail and regular mail. In April I will stop sending the newsletter through regular mail only for those with e-mail. Those without e-mail will still continue to receive the newsletter through regular mail. If I don't have your e-mail address and you would like to receive it through the computer, please notify me at dzampelli@ci.akron.oh.us. There are many advantages to e-mail, including making reservations, receiving reminders and important notices. I encourage all members to utilize the e-mail system to receive the newsletter.

IMPORTANT NOTICE !!!

There are still some members who have not yet paid their 2006 dues. The amount for a regular member is twenty dollars and a lifetime member is ten dollars. Your dues go a long way in helping to defray our expenses.

DEEPEST SYMPATHIES

Recently, William Diehl, a lifetime member of our organization, passed away. Please keep his family in your thoughts and prayers during this time of mourning.

Sincerely,

Daniel Zampelli
Secretary
